When he was about to give up any hope of survival, men came in and, instead of trying to save him,

He was thrown into a cart with full of dead bodies along with bodies of his parents.

The cart moved outside of the village.

Adult bodies would be thrown into a trash pit near, while in a rush Children bodies were carried further away.

And were tied around on a flat ground in a forest.

I AM ALIVE...

PLEASE DON'T LEAVE ME HERE...

However, his desperate voice would not come out of his mouth.

At one moment,
shining birds came into the boy's violent and hopeless stare at the night sky.

The boy realized quickly that he was not hallucinating.

He realized the shining birds were souls of his friends.

His friends were ascending to the Heavens,

Leaving him alone.

DON'T GO.

The boy was left all alone.

He vanished as if he was fighting
